Pen Portraits
Claire Hudson	Claire is our foundation governor. She is a National Leader of Governance, and is currently chair of governors at a special school and a primary school. She works for the Diocese of Bath & Wells as part of their School Organisation team, where part of her job includes providing governor improvement training. Claire's motivation as a governor is ensuring equality of opportunity for all children. She is currently Acting Co-Chair at St Mary's.
Ruth Balch	Ruth is a National Leader of Governance and is currently Acting Co-Chair at St Mary's. Pen Portrait to follow.

Alice Brown	Alice has been the Headteacher of St Mary's since 2012, with over 20 years of experience as a senior leader in primary schools across a number of different local authorities. She has a Post Graduate Certificate in Education, NPQH and a Masters degree in Education. She is passionate about ensuring that all children are given equitable opportunity to thrive and achieve, across a broad, rich and experiential curriculum.
Alun Williams	Alun is currently CEO of the Midsomer Norton Schools' Partnership, OFSTED trained and has 10 years of experience as a Headteacher with 15 years of experience as a senior leader in schools. This knowledge, across all phases, means Alun has an excellent understanding about leadership structures and systems, which leads to first rate schools and education for young people.
Tom Morrison	Tom is a senior education improvement adviser employed by Bath and North East Somerset Council. Tom has a Post Graduate Certificate in Education, Qualified Teacher Status, and Masters degrees in Mathematics Education, and in Statistics and Management Science. His current role includes responsibility for early years, school improvement and data. Previously he has worked in initial teacher training, inspection and in leadership positions in schools and local authorities.
Toby Simon	Toby was a councillor in Enfield, North London for 16 years before he and his wife moved West to be nearer the grandchildren. During that time he was Chair of Governors of a very successful primary school in a multicultural area of Edmonton, as well as being a governor in three secondary schools. He is looking forward to working closely with other governors to ensure a stable and successful future for St Mary's, and is taking a particular interest in the school's finances.
Emma Sage	Emma is a secondary school teacher with eight years of experience, some as a Middle Leader. She is the parent of two children, who attend St Mary's. She is passionate about education and believes that every child should have a good quality education that inspires them to be a lifelong learner.
