

How can the chair of light teleport you?

This wonderful time machines will teleport you swiftly. When you have the chair of light you don't have to travel in an old and raggedy airplane. You can go at the speed of light and i really do mean the speed of light.

WARNING: not fire resistant.

At first you would obviously buy the time machine for £50.00 from your local retailer. To activate your new purchase chair of light, you sit on the wonderful mechanism. Then you, put your pointing finger on the finger pad, on the airplane nowadays. Chair which will start your device. After that, you will require a friend to control the vehicle and they would guide you to where you want to go with the controller.

Then your friend, or whoever is guiding you, will press go and you will go to where you want. The further you go the longer it will take. HAVE FUN!

An unknown fact is that you can travel 1,000,000 times faster than the old plane concord and about 100,000,000 faster than an average nowadays.
