Rap it

Turn your spelling words into a rap where each word is spelled out.
If you'd like to perform your song in school, ask your teacher.

Word factory

Put the letter string/rule in the centre of your page in a bubble. Put a range of random letters around your page and see what words you can make!

dough
Cough

Games

Play a spelling themed board game at home.

This could be Scrabble, Boggle or Bananagrams. Can you spell out your spelling words?

If you haven't got a spelling themed board game at home, make up your own spelling game.

Super Sentences

Create sentences using your spelling words. Can you use different subordinating conjunctions? Eg: when, before, after, while, so, because.

Get Creative!

Write out your spellings using different pens, pencils or materials. You could even fill a tray with salt and write them with your finger or go to the beach and write them in the sand.

Online Games

Use SpellingCity.com or <https://spellingframe.co.uk/> and play a game.

LSCWC

Use the Look, Say, Cover, Write, Check method. First, look at the word and say it aloud and visualise the word in your head. Next, cover the word up and try spelling it without help. Finally uncover the word and check if you got it right! Repeat until they are all correct.

You choose

Create your own task.

Handwriting

Write each spelling out 10 times in your best joined handwriting.

Word Jumbles

Ask a family member to write your spelling words in a jumble. Your task is to un-jumble them!
